

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR JAMPAD BOOKING

- 1) During jam pad booking, only band members are permitted to enter inside jampad. Spectators or audience members are not allowed, and event charges apply for such cases.
- 2) The consumption of food not ordered from the café is strictly prohibited within the jampad and cafe premises.
- 3) Instrument and sound setup time is included in the booking duration.
- 4) We're dedicated to creating a fully functional jamming space with the best possible gear, driven by our passion for indie music. This project isn't aimed at generating revenue, given the equipment and engineered sound we provide. We kindly request bands and musicians to understand that this is a community space and an experience center for our principal company because of which occasionally, we may need to accommodate last-minute events and demos, which could require rescheduling. In such cases, the next booking will be offered free of charge to compensate for any inconvenience.
- 5) To cancel a booking, please provide at least 24 hours' notice. We do not offer refunds once payment is received, but we can reschedule based on slot availability if notified at least 24 hours before your booking; otherwise, no compensation of any kind is provided.
- 6) The management team reserves the right to ban any band from the jam pad space if deemed necessary. Reasons for such action may include misbehavior or violation of the terms and conditions.
- 7) Only the designated sound engineers on the floor are authorized to operate the mixing console. No one else is permitted to touch it without their permission and assistance.
- 8) The space must be vacated promptly at the end of the allocated time slot.
- 9) Clients are responsible for clearing any garbage they generate (excluding cafe-related cutlery) before leaving the space.
- 10) Any physical damage resulting from mismanagement or inappropriate use of equipment will be invoiced towards the client.
